OHIO PROHIBITIONISTS.

A State Ticket Put on a Strongly Pronounced Platform.

The Majority in the Republican Legislature Denounced—"The Prohibition of Intoxicating Liquors, Yes" Will be on Their Ballots.

COLUMBUS, O., June 15.—The Prohibitionists met yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, and a temporary organization was constituted as follows: President, H. S. Canfield, of Richland county; Vice Presidents, Rev. C. S. Work, of Fairfield, and C. S. Tamm, of Lorain; Secretaries, Miss Kate I. Kelsey, of Lorain county; Isaac C. Hull, of Guernsey, and J. H. Condit, of Wood.

It was concluded to have prayer, and the Rev. Wm. McKee was called upon to offer the divine blessing. After prayer a collection was taken up to send greeting to the Prohibition Convention of Maine now in session.

The delegates then separated by districts, and named members of the Committees on Permanent Organization, Resolutions, and Nominations. These selections were reported to an enrollment committee, by which the committees were presented to the convention. This proceeding consumed much time, and was very tedious, a characteristic feature of prohibition and temperance conventions generally.

The committee on resolutions consisted of J. P. Hoy, First District; H. T. Ogden, Second District; J. H. Blackford, Third District; B. F. Howard, Fourth District; Thos. Hopley, Fifth District; A. Philo, Sixth District; E. A. Palmer, Seventh District; Wm. Pollock, Eighth District; Wm. Penn, Ninth District; D. N. Trobridge, Tenth District; Thos. E. Peden, Eleventh District; Rev. J. Smith, Twelfth District; O. C. Brown, Thirteenth District; G. D. Stewart, Fourteenth District; J. N. Myers, Fifteenth District; George Richey, Sixteenth District; D. W. Dorman, Nineteenth District; C. M. Johnson, Twentieth District; D. W. Gage, Twenty-first District. The convention adjourned at 12 until 1:30 o'clock.

This afternoon a permanent organization was reported by the committee as follows: President, H. L. Canfield; Vice Presidents, J. Condit, C. L. Tamm, C. L. Work, Matthew Stewart and W. J. Kirkendall; Secretaries, Miss Kate I. Kelsey, J. J. Ashenbrenner and Rev. G. L. Travis.

The following resolutions were submitted by the committee on resolutions:

Resolved, That we repeat and affirm the platforms of principles and measures adopted by the National Convention of the Prohibition Home Protection party held in Chicago August 24, 1882, and by the several State conventions of the prohibition reform party of Ohio.

Resolved, That we denounce the doctrine of personal liberty in relation to the liquor crime, declared by the Democratic party of Ohio, as subverting the foundations of free government, and tending only to universal corruption, anarchy and despotism.

Resolved, That we condemn the policy of the republican party (avowed by its platform, adopted at its recent State convention and by acts of the present Legislature, with its two-thirds republican majority, in the Pond and Scott laws, and the first proposition of the Constitutional amendment) in making the State of Ohio a partner, by taxation, in the perpetration and promotion of the great crime of crimes, and in repealing these with law for the protection of the Sabbath, and the prohibitory law enacted over twenty-nine years ago for the suppression of dram-shops for the sale of distilled liquors and foreign wines, that thus larger revenues of blood may accrue from this infamous copartnership.

Resolved, That we condemn the policy of the republican majority in this legislature in submitting to the people the amendment of the constitution which forces into an unnatural and corrupt combination the hostile principles of license, with taxation, and the total prohibition of the liquor crime, by a bargain and sale in that body between the professed friends of virtue on one side and the servitors of crime on the other.

Resolved, That the present constitution gives plenary power to the legislature to prohibit the traffic in intoxicating liquor as a beverage; yet we favor the adoption of the second proposition of the amendment to the Constitution, notwithstanding the unnecessary and unjust provision coupled therewith, to repeal the anti-license clause in the present Constitution, it being the only way given whereby the electors can express at the ballot box their demand for the prohibition of the liquor crime, except by the election of the friends of prohibition to the Legislature.

Resolved, That in placing upon our ballots the words of submission, "Prohibition of intoxicating liquors, Yes," we protest against the false statement of our principles and policy contained in those words, but which are truly stated in the words of the amendment itself, "The manufacture of and the traffic in intoxicating liquors to be used as a beverage are forever prohibited."

Resolved, That we recognize the necessity of religious, moral, social, and educational means in forming the foundations of political action for the suppression of the liquor crime, and we tender to the Women's Christian Union and other associations in those departments of effort our most cordial sympathy and support.

The ticket nominated is as follows: Governor, Ferdinand Schumacher, of Summit; Lieutenant-Governor, H. T. Ogden, of Hamilton; Supreme Judge (short term), Z. C. Payne, of Franklin; Supreme Judge (long term), D. C. Montgomery, of Knox; Clerk of Supreme Court, J. H. Blackford, of Preble; Attorney General, J. W. Roseboro, of Fulton; Auditor of State, Gresham Leas, of Hardin; Commissioner of State, J. M. Whiting, of Huron; Commissioner of Common Schools, H. A. Thompson, of Franklin; Member of Board of Public Works, G. C. Cruzen, of Hardin; State Executive Committee, G. P. Burwell, of Cuyahoga; A. Alderman, of Morgan; D. N. Trobridge, of Lucas; J. W. Sharp, of Delaware; Jay Odell, of Cuyahoga.

FORFEITED DIAMONDS.

What It Costs to Get Caught Smuggling.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The question of the forfeiture of forty-three diamonds was before Judge Brown and a jury, in the United States District Court in the suit of the United States against Fanny Sussman. The principal witness for the Government was Captain Brackett, the chief of the special agents of Treasury Department for New York. He said that in February last he received information that a woman was offering diamonds for sale considerably below their value. On the following morning he met this woman in the store of a diamond broker in Nassau street. She had the diamonds with her. He asked her where she got them and told her who he was. She replied, "Well, I suppose I must pay duty on them. It will be ten per cent. on their value, and that will be about $400."

Brackett testified that he replied that it was too late to talk like that, and asked her to accompany him, with the diamonds, to the Custom-house. If the stones had not been smuggled he would return them to her. If the duty had not been paid, however, he would seize them. She went with him to the Custom-house, and there before General Palmer, who was in charge of the law department, she said that she had come to arrange to pay duty on the diamonds. The diamonds were seized by the Government officers.

Expert testimony was given that the value of the gems was $4,784, and that they were of foreign production. This closed the case for the Government.

The defendant said her maiden name was Fanny Sussman. On May 18, 1882, she went to Europe and returned on August 30, in the steamer Edam from Amsterdam. She arrived September 15, and did not bring any jewelry with her. The diamonds were given to her sister by her father, thirteen years ago, and her father at the same time gave her a little jewelry and a gold watch and chain. Her sister was in some pecuniary troubles as to real estate and the witness undertook to sell the diamonds for her. As she knew nothing about their value, a friend of hers, Mr. Cohen, went with her. They showed the jewels to a firm in Nassau street, who told her to come the next morning. She did so and then she saw Captain Brackett, who told her that the diamonds were smuggled and that he should seize them. She invited the captain to go into another room as she wished to explain to him that her real name was Hockman.

After deliberating about half an hour the jury returned a verdict for the Government, declaring that the diamonds should be forfeited.

ALFONSO AND LUIS.

Their August Majesties Have a Picnic.

MADRID, June 15.—A year or so ago the King of Spain visited the King of Portugal upon the occasion of the opening of a more direct railroad route between the capitals of the two countries. Prior to that time the route was very circuitous between Lisbon and Madrid, but now a new and direct railroad, which has been accomplished by tunneling the mountain ranges, connects them by the shortest possible distance. King Alfonso rode over the route upon that occasion, and now King Luis has returned the compliment, and his visit to Madrid has been the occasion of a holiday for the Spaniards, who are as fond of entertainments as the French. Though both the Powers are little ones they made no mean display. The Municipality of Madrid erected a handsome pavilion in which the two Queens, Christina and Maria Pia, were enthroned in state and received their royal husbands, who galloped up before them and made their dovoirs in a manner worthy of the old days of chivalry. Then there was a procession of the Spanish army, 15,000 strong. The men looked healthy and useful, marching fully equipped in double file, with a swinging step and in fairly good time. The mountain and field batteries deserved very high praise. It was noticeable that about half of the light field pieces were of compressed bronze, manufactured in Seville, and it is stated that they give results superior to those of Krupp steel. The march was followed by a banquet at which their majesties pledged each other's health and the prosperity of the two Kingdoms. The next day the royal families went off on a picnic. The weather was fine. There were no Nihilists threatening to blow them up. The Black Hand did not menace them. They had a pleasant day, and the next day Luis and Maria Pia and the children started, bag and baggage, home again. Courtesies are rare between the two powers, for the reason that the Portuguese are afraid of a possible union of the two nations.

The Obnoxious Trade Dollar.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A meeting of wholesale receivers of dairy and other country produce was held recently at the Mercantile Exchange rooms, at which a committee was appointed to secure signatures to a pledge not to receive trade dollars at par. This committee has obtained the pledges of a majority of the members of the trades interested not to receive the objectionable coin from their customers after July 1, except at the current rate of discount. The extent to which New York wholesale produce dealers have been inundated with trade dollars is said to be a serious grievance. Their customers are the grocers and retailers, who get the coins from the general public and pay their bills with them, leaving the wholesale men to sell silver at a discount to brokers. These very brokers, it is said, sell the coins to factories and concerns where large numbers of persons are employed to pay off their hands, and so the circle is kept up week after week.

ANOTHER OCEAN SECRET.

The Steamer Africa, With Fifty Souls on Board, Given Up for Lost.

NEW YORK, June 15.—The steamer Africa left this port on March 27 for Leith and Hamburg. As she has been out seventy-six days, and no tidings received concerning her, all hope of her being yet afloat has been abandoned. There is no record of a steamer ever having reached the other side on a similar voyage after having been overdue the length of time the Africa has. For some time past the marine underwriters have not accepted the heavy premiums for insurance offered by the shippers. Captain Buchholtz was the name of her commander. He belonged to Hamburg, and was forty-six years old. Although he had commanded steamships only a few years, he was considered a competent navigator, having had a long experience as captain of sailing vessels, and been mate of the Polynesia of the line to which the Africa belonged when the former vessel was under the command of Captain Winkler, the commodore of the fleet.

The names of the other officers and the crew of the ill-fated vessel are unknown to the consignees, nor their exact number, but it was calculated that there were between fifty and sixty souls on board. She was a comparatively new boat worth from $100,000 to $150,000. She had been to the East Indies once and made several trips across the Atlantic. Her first voyage was from Rio Janeiro to this port with a cargo of coffee.

As to the cause of the loss of the Africa only theories can be advanced, owing to the lack of any certain knowledge on the subject. Her consignees attribute it to collision with another vessel or with ice. The latter is considered the more probable, as it is unlikely that two vessels should come into collision even in midocean and no trace of either, or of their crews, be discovered. At the time the Africa left, March 27, there were a number of icebergs reported as having been met on the voyage by incoming vessels, and it is thought that the Africa ran into one of these floating ice mountains and foundered with all on board. Other shipping men think that she may have become disabled through some injury to her propeller, and been unable by means of her sailing powers alone to live through some storm that overtook her. The consignees have given her up for lost.

MRS. SULLIVAN

Gives Her Sluggish Husband a Good Character.

BOSTON, June 15.—Mrs. John L. Sullivan has taken up the cudgels in her husband's behalf. She called at one of the newspaper offices and asked that she be permitted to personally deny the published statements. She said she had been married to Mr. Sullivan two years, and during that time he had been a very kind husband and had never abused her in any way. "His great misfortune," said Mrs. Sullivan, "is that he has a heart too big for his body, and is so lavish in entertaining his friends that he sometimes oversteps the bounds of prudence in his habits of sociability and is then a little morose and surly. He has never scolded nor abused me in any way, and I think it is outrageous to publish the stories I have seen in some of the New York and Boston papers. This is not the first time he has been assailed by means of false reports, and I can account for it only on the theory that he has offended some one who adopts this method of retaliation. I certainly do not look like a person who was shockingly beaten a few days ago."

Mrs. Sullivan has never raised her hand to me. I think him to much of a man for that; and if he ever had done so, I am too much of a woman to make a complaint against him in court. I would simply pack my trunks, order a carriage, and go to my home in Providence. This matter has worried me very much. I don't know what my friends in Providence will think of the reports."

Mrs. Sullivan looked and talked like a woman who felt that her husband had been maligned without cause, and who desired to clear his reputation from the charge of unmanliness, as well as to prove that she would not tolerate ill treatment.

PIONEER CHINESE PICNIC.

The Celestials Conforming to American Customs.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Brazen cymbals clashed loudly and huge firecrackers exploded tremendously at the Battery while the excursion steamer Long Branch lay anchored at the barge office pier and received on board a gay company of Chinamen in holiday garb. Caucasians, men and women, toddling babies and boys and girls flocked after the Celestials. At half-past 8 o'clock the vessel, with the crimson and yellow triangular flag of China floating from her mast, tooted her whistles shrilly, and started on the "Oriental Pioneer Excursion" up the Hudson to Lons Island.

The excursion was the first Chinese picnic that ever took place in this country. It was under the conduct of the Baptist Chinese Young Men's Christian Association, and was managed by Der Ah Wing, a young Chinese convert, and Mrs. Mary Augusta Carto, a Chinese mission teacher. On the island the Chinese musicians bent their energies to the interpretation of a surprisingly intricate Mongolian opera. The band belonged to the Mot Street Chinese Masonic Temple. One beat the "koo" drum, and another the "pankoo" drum, the latter being a repository of excellent imitation thunder, formed by stretching sheepskin over a barrel. The "teibord" cymbals were clashed, and the "low" gong, suspended from the ceiling by a gross ribbon, was thumped in unison with the "sechoi" trumpet and the "yee sing" and "sao che" fiddles. The classic-featured leader sang softly and plaintively while he wildly banged the copper "sappan" disc. With oriental fireworks, paper nappkins, and Chinese music, they did the picnic in American style.

NO PORK FOR TURKEY.

But Then Turkey Never Had Any of It.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Minister Wallace gets his name into print once more by announcing that the Turkish Government has decided to shut out pork from that country. This is bad for Turkey. So far as this country is concerned it will probably not make much difference in the matter of direct shipments. An examination of the reports by the Treasury Department for the past year shows that among millions of dollars worth of American products shipped from this country direct to Turkey there was not a single dollar's worth of pork or hog products of any kind, nor even a single pound. In that year this country, as shown by Chief Nimmo's able and exhaustive reports, exported to Turkey, direct agricultural implements, manufactures of cotton, manufactures of iron, manufactures of wood, printing presses, paper, petroleum (20,000,000 gallons), sewing machines, pianos, household furniture, lamps, woodenware, machinery, bread and biscuits, cheese, sugar, tobacco, spirits, shot, cartridges, shells, drugs, perfumery and stationery, and yet not a pound of hog product. The Mohammedan religion, which prohibits the eating of pork as strictly as does that of the Hebrews, appears to extend its influence over the 15,000,000 of non-Mohammedans in Turkey quite as effectively as over the 25,000,000 who submit to its faith, so that it is difficult to see what difference this order by the Porte is likely to make, except in its moral effect in increasing the prejudice against the hog.

Coming Trial of Frank James.

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—Chas. P. Johnson has returned from Gallatin, where he has been to see his client, Frank James, whose case is set for trial Monday. As both sides are ready, there is no possibility of further postponement. The trial is expected to run about ten days. James will be defended by Mr. Johnson and John M. Glover, of St. Louis; Garner, of Ray, and Seaver, of Independence. The State will be represented by Circuit Attorney Wallace, of Kansas City; Prosecuting Attorney Hamilton, of Daviess, and Judge Shanklin of Daviess. There are three indictments pending against the outlaw in Daviess county, but the one for which he will be placed on trial Monday is the killing of Conductor Westfall and a passenger on board the train at the time of the Winston robbery. Dick Liddell passed through the city Monday evening in company with Mr. Wallace, on his way from Georgia to Gallatin, to give his testimony against James. He is the witness on whom the State relies for a conviction. Liddell was under sentence for robbery in Georgia, and the Governor refused to pardon him. A stay of execution was obtained. Mr. Johnson says, through Sheriffs Timberlake and Craig, who secured bond for Liddell, to allow him to come to Missouri and testify. Mr. Johnson reports James looking well, though a little restless as a result of his confinement, and says that his wife is as faithful and attentive as ever.

Not a Dollar of It Yet Sent to the Irish.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A meeting of officers of the Convention of Irish Societies in this city will be held in East Forty-eighth street this evening. At this gathering an animated discussion is expected, owing to the dissatisfaction existing among the members of the different organizations over the retention of the money collected at Jones' Wood on St. Patrick's day for the relief of the suffering poor in Ireland. Not one dollar of the amount has yet been transmitted. Several meetings of the different societies have been held recently and resolutions were adopted calling on the county officers of the convention to transmit the money forthwith. If some action be not taken at this evening's meeting in that direction a meeting of delegates of the different societies will be called to compel the trustees to send the money without further delay.

Postal Thieves Captured.

CHICAGO, June 15.—Postoffice Inspector Henshaw thinks that the results of his northern trip will be appreciated by the letter-writing public of the northwest. Besides arresting W. R. Souter, the thiefing ex-postal clerk at LaCrosse, he detected Philip Gilbride, a clerk in the Minneapolis postoffice, rifling the mail. His pecuniary habits had been going on for a long time, and are supposed to amount to a large sum in the aggregate. He pleaded guilty. Souter was retained in the railway mail service by congressional influence for a long time, in the face of protests of Superintendent White. He was finally discharged, when the postoffice inspectors added their condemnation of him to that of his superior officer.

Carefully Arranged Suicide.

BRIDGEPORT, ALA., June 15.—Mrs. Wheeler, wife of Rev. J. H. Wheeler, deceased, went to the orchard, climbed to a suitable limb, and pruned the leaves and small branches off. She then dressed in her best suit of clothing and arranged her toilet as carefully as possible. Being unable to procure a rope she made one of a hank of yarn. This she securely tied to the limb of the tree, formed a noose at one end, and, encircling her neck, sprang forward. She fell five feet, and died of strangulation. She leaves behind five orphan children. The coroner's jury returned a verdict of mental aberration.

Labor Unions Denounced.

MONTREAL, June 15.—The Archbishop of Quebec has issued a mandate discommending any connection by his flock with secret societies. His Grace includes labor unions in the category.

A KING INTERVIEWED.

The Italian Monarch Would Like to See the World as a Reporter—Church and State—Madagascar Mediation.

ITALY.

NEW YORK, June 15.—A cable to the Herald from Paris says: Our Rome correspondent sends the following:

King Umberto gave the Herald correspondent half an hour's audience at the Quirinal this afternoon, in the course of which His Majesty frankly discussed various matters interesting to Italy and to the world. Speaking of the Vatican he declared he had the sincerest respect for the person of the Pope and regretted a reconciliation between Church and State seemed so far distant. "If the Pope were to leave his retirement for the streets of Rome I feel convinced he would meet with the utmost deference."

Turning to foreign questions, he assured me it was his only desire that his kingdom should live in peace with all men. He had no hatred of France, or any other country.

"I have no ambition save to diminish taxation, which is very heavy, and retain what we have won since Italy became united. We have no selfish ambition. When a people wishes to diminish a taxation, it does not increase expenditure. We have made great progress. We need peace."

In regard to domestic politics he expressed himself perfectly satisfied. His ministers are devoted and honest, and his subjects loyal. Wherever he went the greatest respect was paid him. In conversation about America, in which he seemed to take a lively interest, he expressed much admiration for the American press, especially that of New York. He rose and shook hands heartily, saying in French, before parting: "Were I not a king I should wish to see the world as a reporter."

MADAGASCAR.

PARIS, June 15.—The French Government has accepted the overtures of Lord Granville for the mediation of the British Government in the dispute between France and Madagascar.

GERMANY.

BERLIN, June 15.—The Committee of the Landtag yesterday adopted the first three clauses of the proposed Ecclesiastical Bill, but rejected the fourth clause. The bill as it will now be presented is infinitely more liberal than the May laws, and to that extent it is satisfactory to the Catholics, although it is less liberal than they had reason to expect, and less liberal than the Government had intended it should be. The Government, after its passage, will probably introduce a second measure extending its policy, at least so far as to carry out all the suggestions made in the recent letters to the Vatican.

CONDENSED NEWS.

A boy named Beldin was killed and eaten by a bear in the woods at Annagance, N. B., Wednesday.

At Tallahassee, Fla., Henry Simmons, colored, who was sentenced to the penitentiary at the last term of the Circuit Court at Pensacola for wife murder, made a break for liberty, and was shot by the guard and killed.

While the three little children of W. Davis, in Matthews county, Virginia, were playing under a suspended wagon body it broke from its fastenings and fell, crushing the children almost to a jelly and killing them all instantly.

Up to 6 this morning the fiend who outraged Nellie Lyons, aged seven, Sheboygan, Mich., had not been captured. Seventy-five determined men were scouring the woods all night. If caught his life won't be worth a cent.

At Enterprise, Miss., last night twenty men, friends of Edward McLaughlin, an Irish peddler, came from Meridian disguised, overpowered the guard, broke down the colaboose door, took Harris out and hanged him from a railroad bridge.

Near Feliciana, La., Geo. Molux, a colored laborer on the parish roads, became involved in a row with J. Hunter Collins, assistant road overseer, and knocked him down. Collins went off and got a pistol, and returning, opened fire on the negro, killing him instantly.

A TERRIBLE double tragedy has occurred in the vicinity of Beaverdam, N. C., between Dave Moss and a Mr. Roberts. Both emptied their revolvers into each other at short range. They were found lying helpless upon the ground, and are both said to have died of their injuries. The affray was the result of an old feud.

Another Negro Arrested for the Ashland Murders.

ASHLAND, KY., June 15.—Dabney Jones, the second negro suspected of murdering the Gibbons children, was arrested in Huntington yesterday afternoon. He stoutly denies his guilt, and says he is abundantly able to prove an alibi. He walked the streets here yesterday evening unmolested. Mary Miller, the negroess whom it was stated Dingley had given a part of the jewelry to is also here. She denies ever having the jewelry in her possession. There is a very strong feeling here against Detective Burnett, and especially among the negroes. Wise counsels are endeavoring to-night to persuade them not to act rashly in the matter. It is more than likely the examining trial will be postponed until next Monday or Tuesday, the defense not being ready. There is no doubt that all of the alleged parties are innocent of the murder and had nothing to do with it, and that the entire scheme is an outrage and the outbreak of the fertile imagination of a detective and newspaper reporter. No new developments have transpired, because there is nothing to develop, the matter being one hardly worth while telegraphing to any large extent.

FRANK JAMES' trial will begin at Gallatin, Mo., next Monday.

Says the Bourbon Sun: "Dr. Gould says that he would do it again if it was to do over."

THE New York press charges the Star Route jury with ignorance, incompetency and drunkenness.

THE corner stone of the new court house at Lexington will be laid on the fourth day of July with public ceremonies.

MESSAGES are pouring in from all parts of the country tendering sympathy for young Nutt, who killed Dukes, at Uniontown, Pa.

THE Kentucky Infirmary at Louisville is to be closed. They depended upon contributions. They have failed and the charity closes.

FREEMAN'S JOURNAL indorses the sentences of Dr. Gallagher, Whitehead, Wilson, and Curtin, and declares that nothing but ruin can come to any cause whose advocates resort to the use of dynamite or similar incendiary means.

THE Philadelphia Times says: The sparrow is everybody's foe; the foe of the garden, of the field and of the songsters of the air, and all should join in destroying it. It is a plucky, reckless raider and is as tenacious of life as a cat. It claims all seasons for its own, and funerals seems to be few and far between in the family. They won't die in genial spring time; they won't die in the heat of summer; they won't die in mellow autumn, and they won't die even in bleak winter. They seem to be able to live anywhere in all seasons, and to multiply with fearful rapidity.

There is only one way, and that is for every family to declare war against the feathered scourge. Let the shot gun do its best work around the farms, where its deadly mission can be fulfilled without driving the domestic birds away and about country homes, where lawns and shades are the abodes of our own welcome domestic birds, the percussion shot-gun and the air gun may be used with effect. The air gun is of little practical use in making sparrow funerals, but it is just the thing to destroy their nests, and the destruction of the sparrows nests is the most important part of the work of extermination. See that no sparrow nests last long enough to send the brood out upon the world, and, and that most effective assault upon the sparrow can thus be well performed around every home or farm by a little evening and morning watchfulness.

Philadelphia has imported and spread the sparrow curse upon ourselves and the country, and here the work of destruction should be systematic and tireless. Besides destroying buds and driving the birds of song from our squares, the sparrow has defiled and deformed our houses and shrubbery, and the war should be relentless against it in our city. The sparrow can't be shot in the city with safety, but if care was taken all over Philadelphia, to destroy the sparrow nests, the work of extermination would be speedily accomplished. Let the people in city and country begin at once, and few years effect will reward them with the practical blotting out of the most pestiferous visitor of all the feathered tribe.

FRESHLY GATHERED.

Accidents, Crimes, Fortunes and Failures.

At New York, Belknap's paint factory and Kaufman's britania warehouse burned. Loss, $15,000.

At Halifax, the Grand Lodge of Good Templars adopted the reports of the committee on the color question, rejecting in the vindication of the fundamental principles of the Order by the institution of the Order in fourteen out of fifteen Southern States in America. The session then closed.

At Princeton, Iowa, John W. Walker, capitalist and ferryboat owner, was seriously wounded and his wife and mother-in-law probably fatally injured in a runaway accident. They were out riding, when the horse ran away, ending with plunging over an embankment.

Joseph Copper, a deaf mute, living five miles north of Noblesville, Ind., last evening shot his sister-in-law three times in the neck, having previously threatened to murder her, and afterwards shot himself three times in the head. The suicide will die, and, probably, also his victim.

A terrible affray, resulting from the trespassing on property, occurred between the Thompson and Surrall families, near Utica, Miss. A number of shots were exchanged, and W. J. Thompson was killed and his son severely wounded, and Chas. Surrall fatally shot.

News is received here that Beetown, a small village in the interior of Iowa, was almost completely blown away by a tornado Wednesday night. Only one house was left standing, and that, singularly enough, was on a hill. No loss of life is reported. No further details came to hand up to 10 o'clock this morning.

The yacht Hebe capsized in a squall on Lake Champlain. The captain and mate were drowned.

At London, O., Chas. Hitchcock, janitor at the high school, was killed by a train on the Little Miami Railroad.

At Helena, Ark., a German music teacher, calling himself Professor Collin, arrived sometime since from New York. He formed a class in music with promised success. Last night he mysteriously disappeared, and is believed to have suicided by drowning. No cause assigned.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Wreck on the Cincinnati Northern. CINCINNATI, June 15.—The train on the Cincinnati Northern (Toledo, Cincinnati & St. Louis Narrow-gauge) which left this city at 2:13 p. m. while rounding a curve near Kennedy Station, left the track. No lives were lost, but destruction of property to a large amount resulted. The locomotive was piled together ready for a junk shop, and while the train-men and passengers were lamenting the death of the engine, that worthy individual crawled from beneath the wreck and calmly inspected himself for injuries, without discovering any material damage. Considerable delay will result in clearing and repairing the track.

Our Useless Navy to be Sold.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Upon his return to Washington, Secretary Chandler will advertise for sealed proposals for the purchase of two ironclads, two iron and twenty-six wooden ships, which have been condemned by the boards of inspection as unfit for further naval service. The following vessels now at Mare Island are included in the list: The Benicia, Narragansett, Nyack, Saco, Tuscarora, and Alaska. The remaining vessels are at the Eastern and Southern yards. Proposals for purchase will be received until September 15.

Expelled from the Baptist Ministry.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 15.—A Chronicle Cor. tells us, Pa. dispatch says the Monongahela association of the Baptist Church after hearing the charges against the Rev. R. C. Morgan, alleging malicious and general lying, rending the church into two parties by unjust rulings, indecorous and grossly immoral conduct, unanimously sustained the charges and excommunicated R. C. Morgan from the Baptist Church.

At Aurora, Ind., burglars Wednesday morning, went through the dwelling of Rev. A. M. Chapin, and got away with about $500 worth of jewelry. No clue.

Bob Lowe last night called at Wash. Brown's house, four miles from Brenham, Texas, called Brown to the door, and shot him, from the effects of which Brown died. Some difficulty is said to have taken place between deceased's son and Bob and Jesse Lowe. All are colored.

GEN. GRANT has agreed to lend his valuable collection of works of art, gathered by him in all parts of the world, as a special exhibit for the art gallery of the Southern Exposition at Louisville.

A WHISKER dye must be convenient to use, easy to apply, impossible to rub off, elegant in appearance, and cheap in price. Buckingham's Dye for the Whiskers unites in itself all of these merits. Try it.

THE New Hampshire Republican Senatorial caucus nominated Edward H. Rollins for United States Senator, and adopted a resolution that the Legislature should also choose a Senator for the long term. Hon. W. Blair was selected on the first ballot.

THE reduction of the National debt in the eleven months ending on May 31, amounted to $115,725,000 and the surplus for the entire year will probably exceed $125,000,000, a sum slightly in excess of Secretary Folger's original estimate, which has been affected by legislation and the varying demands of the Pension office. The receipts for the present fiscal year have been nearly equal thus far to those of the last year, except in the Customs division, where the decrease is already about $10,000,000.

MISS MATTIE CARR.

A Significant Marriage.
PARIS, June 16.—The marriage of Beatrice Rothschild to M. Maurice Ephrussi produced a tremendous sensation in Paris, and the accounts of the various splendors of the occasion, of the illustrious guests, of the incredible wealth and beauty, of presents, and the plutocratic marvels of the allied families, quite equal the stories of the Czar's Coronation.

The Ephrussi are in Eastern what the Rothschilds are in Western Europe, and the union is more significant and important than the weddings of half a dozen royalties. The Jewish temple on the Rue de la Victoire was besieged by over 2,000 guests in wedding attire, provided with cards of invitation to witness the religious ceremony of the marriage of Maurice Ephrussi, the banker, whose racing colors are well-known on the French turf, to Mlle. Beatrice Rothschild, daughter of Baron Alphonse. The synagogue was splendidly decorated with crimson and gold drapery in oriental profusion, rare exotics, plants and flowers. The bride is eighteen years of age, in figure petite and of a transparent complexion.

Baron Rothschild gave his daughter $300,000 to buy furniture with and $5,000 a month to keep house. During the ten days preceding the wedding the bride received over 1,100 letters from destitute young ladies, asking alms, and there was no one but received an answer.

Dr. Gallagher, Wilson, Whitehead, and Curtin, Sentenced for Life.

LONDON, June 15.—In the dynamite trials the jury returned a verdict of guilty against Dr. Gallagher, Wilson, Whitehead, and Curtin, and a verdict of not guilty in the case of Ansburch and Bernard Gallagher. The four men found guilty were then sentenced to life-long penal servitude.

Dr. Gallagher protested his innocence. He said the time would come when the matter would be set right before the world.

Dr. Gallagher kissed and shook hands with his brother and Ansburch. Whitehead, Wilson and Curtin each shook hands with Bernard Gallagher, and kissed Ansburch fervently. The convicts were conveyed to Millbank prison in a van. A mob hissed the police escort en route. The military guard at the prison had been strengthened in order to prevent any attempt at rescue. The sentinels have been furnished with ball cartridges.

AYER'S PILLS.

A large proportion of the diseases which cause human suffering result from derangement of the stomach, bowels, and liver. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS act directly upon these organs, and are especially designed to cure the diseases caused by their derangement, including Constipation, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Headache, Dysentery, and a host of other ailments, for all of which they are a safe, sure, prompt, and pleasant remedy. The extensive use of these PILLS by eminent physicians in regular practice, shows unmistakably the estimation in which they are held by the medical profession.

These PILLS are compounded of vegetable substances only, and are absolutely free from calomel or any other injurious ingredient.

A Sufferer from Headache writes:

"AYER'S PILLS are invaluable to me, and are my constant companion. I have been a severe sufferer from Headache, and your PILLS are the only thing I could look to for relief. One dose will quickly move my bowels and free my head from pain. They are the most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. It is a pleasure to me to speak in their praise, and I always do so when occasion offers."

W. L. PAGE, of W. L. Page & Bro., Franklin St., Richmond, Va., June 3, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S PILLS in numberless instances as recommended by you, and have never known them to fail to accomplish the desired result. We constantly keep them on hand at our home, and prize them as a pleasant, safe, and reliable family medicine. FORT DYSPEPSIA they are invaluable."

Mexia, Texas, June 17, 1882.

The REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, writing from Atlanta, Ga., says: "For some years past I have been subject to constipation, from which, in spite of the use of medicines of various kinds, I suffered increasing inconvenience, until some months ago I began taking AYER'S PILLS. They have entirely corrected the costive habit, and have vastly improved my general health."

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS correct irregularities of the bowels, stimulate the appetite and digestion, and by their prompt and thorough action give tone and vigor to the whole physical economy.
